

your own
to be paid 200 £ to Westons want of to pay of the Navy with the many other in a vessel as others of your of this or

Mr. D. Mott

Charles J. C. Jenkins Esq

Old Swan House

London

Dec 2. 99. 11. 4. 3 1/2
22. 16. 1/2

R. Mott
Nov. 14. 1808.

Julius

Brighton Nov. 14. 1800

There seems to be some gloom hanging abt^l the mind of Jimⁿ in consequence of the Marriage of Young Vine which seems necessary to be remove before she can stick pleasantly to business & thinking this may be as good a method to accomplish that end as any I have consented to her coming to London but perhaps she will not acknowledge any thing of the kind to you I believe it a feat to mention it in order that you may acct^l for her coming to London at this time & without notice may not know where Mr. was or how he was disposed to act & she being very desirous to go somewhere has been some of the causes of this act & I did thinking she might be very useful to them in the War^o & if not Mrs. Mott of Cranbrook will be very glad of her services & coming to London perhaps in the best way to Cranbrook I have mentioned the circumstances to Cha^l who has been in similar situation & who I think is a very steady fellow tho he may think different to yourself you can consult with them the best mode of conduct to be pursued & let me know the result, I have ordered 200 £ to be placed to the Cr^d of A & J. Motts at Westons Bank but told Char^l if they are not in want of money he should pay one Hundred pounds to you & you may get your friend to buy it into the Navy 5 p^{er} cent in your name what you have done with the 50 £ I know not as you do not say any thing ab^t it in your letter but if you can employ it in a safe way to better advantage I have no objection as stocks may be some ^{what} lower if Bonep^t round the sharpen but stocks will shut on the 2 Dec^r & then you will not get the Div^d but you will hear enough of this or Change & as you are tired reading & I of writing

I am Rob^t Motts