

London 26th June 1826

Dear Brother

at a c.

420

Enclosed was brought to me on Saturday last. by Mr Stout of New York who married a sister of Brother Williams wife, and with whom, Williams daughter Mary is living. This letter he tells me is from Mary, in answer to one you wrote some years ago. Mr Stout very much wished to see you, but finding he could not, left me the letter, to forward to you. He appears very desirous to take an answer back. His stay in London would be about a week or ten days. at the Bull Inn Aldgate St

You no doubt will have heard of the death of Mrs J. H. R. Mott. From which Circumstances no doubt my Cousin will have been as much as possible. (Both the Pretter are about to leave) I should be very thankful if something could be done for me either in the public time - or any other that I had meant to enter upon. It would be highly to afford alimony, but I am not likely to be interested if you know of any thing. The Study Communicator may be made with. & Sincerely Yours Mott

Henry Brock
New York
New 1876

Mrs. Mott
Loughborough

Prof. S. J. Campbell

A 20 A letter from either Martha (Patty) or Jemima to Julius enclosed with the letter from Mary Mott in New York A 19.

Dear Brother

London 26th June 1826

The enclosed was brought to me on Saturday last by Mr. Stout of New York who married a Sister of Brother William's wife, and with whom William's Daughter, Mary is living. This letter he tells me from Mary in America in Answer to one you wrote some years ago. Mr. Stout very much wished to see you, but finding he could not*, left me the letter to forward to you. He appears very desirous to take an answer back. _____
His stay in London would be about a week or ten days at the Bull Inn, Aldgate.

You no doubt will have heard/^{ere this}of the death of Mrs. J.H.R. Mott from which circumstance no doubt my cousin will contract his business as much as possible. (Both the Betties are about to leave.)

I should be very thankful something could be done for me either in the public line or any other that I mean to enter upon [tear=which] would be likely to afford a living, lest [tear= my earnings (?)] My interest if you know of anything [tear= that] A speedy communication may be made with [torn=truly] and sincerely yours,
P or J Mott

Seal
Mr. J. Mott
Loughborough

per favour
Miss Campbell

In the hand of Julius
Mary Mott
New York
May 1820

This passes on the letter which had been addressed to Julius in London, when he had already gone to Loughborough.

*

 The wife of Isaac Henry Robert Mott (1790-1855) who had until recently been Julius's partner. She was his first wife, see PORTRAIT OF A FAMILY p. 40.