We have sent you two shirts suppose Mr. Chaffield will come to Brighton before long then J^r. Aunt would like to know how your shirts stand & neck handkerchieves are & how y^r. Cloaths in general are & also how you go on in every respect At present Mary & Semina are both here as J^r. Aunt Mary is very ill & has been for these two weeks & keeps her room therefore Mimma is here to wait on her Things are much the same here as when you left Brighton Jack White now works Carpentery with his father as he could get no place in the cutting way have you learnt any thing yet I am J^r. Uncle R. North
